Attention physician advisor:

Comprehensive Pain Centers, a leading INDEPENDENT pain practice in Allentown, PA, invites interested graduating residents and fellows, to investigate an incredible opportunity for a PAIN MANAGEMENT TRAINED PHYSICIAN, to join a private practice group with over 20 years of service in the community. Candidates seeking a practice that provides them with the ability to practice in a group with limitless options, low physician turnover, incredible quality of life and a solid patient following to start, should consider the following:

Competitive base salary & complete benefits package
Beautiful area in a family oriented community
Lehigh Valley provides 4 seasons, ski & water sports within minutes
Within 2 hour drive to major cities, (New York, Philadelphia and New Jersey Beaches)

This newly created position is the ideal way for a motivated Pain Management Physician to ensure professional success - to be welcomed into an established practice, withholding a national reputation for treating this specialized population. The Allentown based practice is strengthened through its' support of 6 satellite offices stratified across eastern and northeastern PA. This could be a once in a lifetime deal. Interested candidates are encouraged to apply expeditiously.
